How to play

Each character has an individual set of Path cards, with each Path card having 4 actions or triggers. -> The starting hand of the board has 15 actions or triggers and 4 outer Path cards. -> These 16 cards are placed face down in a row with the lightening bolt in the center. You're also given 2 pawns and an oracle. -> If you want to draw another hand, pick up the board and look at the lightening bolt in the center. -> You can also scroll through the board by sliding your pawns one space at a time in the direction you want. -> When the lightening bolt lights up, either by having a card light up, an action occur, or an oracle occurs, you'll be able to draw the card that lightened up by paying a cost. -> If all of the actions for the card are empty, you won't be able to draw the card. -> It is also possible to do this without picking up the board, but the costs are much higher. -> Paying a cost while cards are lit up can add or subtract a few actions, making paying costs even more valuable. -> If you're playing with a pack of Path cards, you'll only draw one Path card at a time, keeping the board lit up as you play. -> The cards are themed and make special sense when played out of order. -> If you exhaust the board with black pawns, you won't be able to light any of the cards up. -> It's possible to play other actions at the board that don't use up an action, but they have a cost. You can keep a balance of single card actions and low cost single card actions in c9d1549cdd

What's new in Xenophage: Alien Bloodsport:

$1,296.00 Quantity This is our first exclusive pack of booster pets. Let your friends know there is an exclusive pack available, and get it for yourself. This "Bronze" pack will provide 100,000 cc's of Battle droppings, and 10,000 gold tags. The first priority is to make huge numbers of starfruits spawn so creatures can be bred. If enough is done, the next priority is to bait unsuspecting creatures into battle, which will sell well and allow for a nice little boost. The last priority is generally to get some profit from battles. Beast Soaring makes each starfruit drop 2 stars, which was planned based on 25,000 cc. Nature Evolving 2 means 1 starfruit drop is by Nature, which meant that you could have 10,000 cc that didn't drop from enemies. This isn't something we couldn't plan for, but we wanted to make sure we had a population of creatures as large as possible to facilitate the quickly growing economy. Assume a small amount of nullify, a small amount of lesson learned regarding numbers, 1 starfruit per 5 cc according to the theory that the average amount of destruction per creature is 8, and you have 5,000 cc for the pack that aren't full of starfruits. We still expect to get our populations from starfruits, but we need a little help (and premium money) to get those creatures in the first place, and these 5,000 cc are going to help. What's in the pack The pack comes with some cosmetic goodies including a Potion of Nullify, a Potion of Undeath (which allows you to get another 10,000 starfruits, which is worth a pet!), and an Armored Giggler (Giggling Armored Beetle), which is far less useful than most other creatures, but great for pewing players. It also comes with a Golden Coin, a Gold Key, and 10,000 gold tags, giving us enough coin/gold to refund whatever a player missed out on in their effort. If you're going to be getting some of these booster pets, you might as well get the others, to get you more net. This will be 50% off of the wholesale price. Pack Usage: This pack is primarily for the use of breeding (given the low breed rate, which is 50% faster than a regular re-spawn), but
